

The International Student Association (ISA) at Black Hawk College recently donated $776 to the Black Hawk College Quad-Cities Foundation for the International/English as a Second Language Scholarship.

Since 2004, the ISA has donated more than $8,100 to the BHC QC Foundation with money raised by the annual BHC International Holiday Bazaar.
