

Black Hawk College East Campus hosted the 2018 Lincoln Trail Conference Scholastic Bowl Meet on Saturday, Feb. 24.

The event pits students from different high schools against each other to answer questions from a variety of categories, such as history, literature, mathematics, music and science.

More than 100 high school students from 10 schools in the Lincoln Trail Conference competed in nine, 45-minute rounds.

The Top 3 teams were:

- 1st place - Mercer County
- 2nd place - Annawan
- 3rd place - ROWVA

The other participating schools were AlWood, Cambridge, Galva, Princeville, Stark County, West Central and Wethersfield.

Star Courier - LTC schools have weekend brain battle

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)

- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email a link to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More