

Black Hawk College is pleased to announce Mr. Tim Wynes, J.D., has been selected as its next president. Wynes has been president of Inver Hills Community College since 2010 and was named president of Dakota County Technical College in 2013. He continues to serve both colleges.

The college conducted a nationwide search with the assistance of the Pauly Group, Inc., an executive search firm specializing in executive academic search consulting located in Springfield, Illinois.

Wynes has signed an offer acceptance confirmation until final contract terms are reached. He is expected to assume the role of president on or before July 1.
