

The Black Hawk College IHSA Western Equestrian Team competed at its first show of the season Sept. 22-23 at Truman State University in Kirksville, MO.

Over the two days, 21 BHC students competed against riders from Augustana College, Illinois State University, Iowa State University, Truman State University, University of Wisconsin - Platteville and Western Illinois University.

On Saturday, Sept. 22, Black Hawk College was the high point team and BHC rider Teah Taylor of Amarillo, TX, was the reserve high point rider.

On Sunday, Sept. 23, Black Hawk College tied with Iowa State for the high point team and BHC rider Kamryn Kruchten of Waunakee, WI, was the reserve high point rider.

Black Hawk College will host an IHSA Western Horse Show Oct. 27-28 in the arena at the East Campus.
