

A black 1954 Ford owned by Gary Crowe of Geneseo won the President's Choice award at the Quad City's Vintage Rods' 47th Annual Car Show at the college's Quad-Cities Campus in Moline.

In the center is Tim Wynes, president of Black Hawk College, with his wife, Becky Wynes, and car owner Gary Crowe.

The Sept. 30 show attracted vintage vehicles from around the Quad Cities, plus Galesburg, Geneseo, Rock Falls and Sterling in Illinois; Cedar Rapids, Clinton, Dubuque, Iowa City and Muscatine in Iowa; and Wisconsin.

Gate admissions from the show go to the Quad City's Vintage Rods scholarship through the Black Hawk College Quad-Cities Foundation.

Since 1984, the rods club has given more than $76,000 to the foundation and has donated to the college for more consecutive years than any other organization.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email a link to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More