

Congratulations to the Community Education Center for winning first place in the East Campus door-decorating contest!

Student organizations voted for the winners.

Pictured with the new traveling trophy - made by Chad Kilstrom - are Shawn Oetzel, Shannon Westphal and Debra Rhoades. Their door décor theme was "National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation."

Taking second place was the equine program with the double doors inside the Ag Arena.

Administration's door - "We are snow much fun!" - won third place.

Also participating were:

- Admissions
- Andrew Mansheim (assistant professor of math)

- Campus Services
- Danielle Williams (East Foundation executive director)
- David Edge (East Foundation assistant)
- Enrollment Services
- Maintenance
- Ray Jacobs (director of operations)
- Taylor Wilkinson (testing & tutoring liaison)

Thanks to everyone who got in the holiday spirit and took the time to decorate!
