

Two Black Hawk College students recently were selected for the 2021 All-Illinois Academic Team in recognition of their scholarly achievements.

Students are nominated by their colleges for the All-USA Academic Team. Nominees to the All-USA Academic Team are named to the Phi Theta Kappa All-State Academic Teams.

Grace Wolfington

Emily Clow

Nominees must demonstrate outstanding academic achievement and significant campus and community engagement.

Black Hawk College nominated these Phi Theta Kappa honor society members for the All-USA Academic Team:

- Grace Wolfington of Sheboygan, WI – East Campus student, transfer path
- Emily Clow of Coal Valley – Quad-Cities Campus student, workforce path

Clow and Wolfington received awards from Phi Theta Kappa and were honored at a virtual Phi Theta Kappa All-Illinois Academic Team Ceremony.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email a link to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More