

After an exhaustive nationwide search, the Presidential Search Committee is pleased to name three candidates as finalists for the position of the next Black Hawk College President.

- Dr. Jeremy Thomas, Provost at Oklahoma City Community College, Oklahoma City, will be on campus March 29-30.
- Dr. Todd Brand, Chief Academic Officer at Ashland Community & Technical College in Ashland, Kentucky will be introduced April 5-6.
- Dr. Sedgwick Harris, Vice President of Administrative Affairs, Northampton Community College in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, will visit April 11-12.

To see the candidates' resumes, interview schedule and other details, visit the Presidential Search page.

Anyone who interacts with the candidates will have the opportunity to complete an anonymous survey regarding their observations. The information will be compiled by Pauly Group and submitted to the Board of Trustees for their review before selecting the successful candidate. The deadline for comments is 5 p.m., Thursday, April 13.

The Presidential Search Committee has committed their time and energy to this effort. The College extends its appreciation to each member for their hard work and contributions.
