

Members of the Quad-Cities Campus Student Government Association made and donated 25 fleece tie blankets to Argrow's House, an organization that supports female survivors of domestic abuse or sexual violence.

The students decided to fund raise and create tie blankets to fulfill one of SGA's constitution cornerstones - outreach and volunteerism. Numerous Quad-Cities Campus clubs and organizations joined in to help make the blankets during the Fall 2023 semester. They presented the blankets to Ms. Kathy from Argrow's House at the Feb. 22 monthly Inter Club Council meeting.

The project provided a rewarding and fun service opportunity for Quad-Cities Campus student leaders to benefit individuals in need.

Pictured are SGA members Ashton Woulf, Lena Slininger, Brooke Thorpe, Lizzy McDonald, Eastwood Adusei and Tessa Ill with Ms. Kathy from Argrow's House.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email a link to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More