

Quad-Cities Campus students recently enjoyed free hot cocoa and cookies as they studied for finals courtesy of the Student Government Association.

During Cocoa and Cram, students also made 200 holiday cards for children at the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital. The cards will be delivered Monday, Dec. 18.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email this to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More