

River Valley Cooperative recently awarded 10- $500 scholarships to students planning to attend a two-year college. Six of the recipients are incoming Black Hawk College East Campus students.

The BHC scholarship recipients are:

- Dalton Petersen of Muscatine, IA
- Payton Rose of Kewanee
- Bailey Roselieb of Annawan
- Mackenzie Steward of Oneida
- Kristen Vendevelde of Galva
- Connor Williams of Annawan

Applicants were eligible to apply by choosing a career path in an ag-related field, their academic achievements, community and school-related activities, understanding of the cooperative system within a community, and their commitment to teaching others about agriculture.

Students who continue to meet the requirements are eligible to renew the scholarship each semester for a maximum of $2,000.

River Valley Cooperative is a member-owned cooperative based in Davenport, Iowa, that serves eastern Iowa and western Illinois.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email this to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)

Six incoming BHC students receiving $500 scholarships | 2

- More