

Congratulations to the Black Hawk College Soil Judging Team for winning 1st place at the American Society of Agronomy (ASA) 2018 Region 3 Collegiate Soils Contest in Prairie du Chien, WI.

The competition included four, two-year schools from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin.

All eight BHC team members placed in the Top 10 individually as well.

They are:

- Cole Wright of Toulon, IL - 1st
- Elizabeth Schoenlein of Portland, IN - 3rd
- Kayla Humphres of Williamsville IL - 4th
- Jake Fell of Galesburg, IL - 5th
- Cole Clinton of Lake Village, IN - 6th
- Brendon Shaw of Annawan, IL - 7th
- Makenzie Snyder of Toulon, IL - 8th
- Kyle Hunter of LaMoille, IL - 10th

Pictured from left to right are:

- Front row - Elizabeth Schoenlein, Makenzie Snyder and Kayla Humphres
- Back row - Kyle Hunter, Cole Clinton, Cole Wright, Jake Fell and Brendon Shaw

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email this to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More