

Congratulations to Black Hawk College horse judging students for finishing the year with another world championship!

Nine BHC East Campus students competed Nov. 10 in the 2018 AQHA World Championship Show Collegiate Horse Judging Contest in Oklahoma City, OK.

In the two-year/junior college division, BHC Team A took 1st place overall and BHC Team B took 4th place overall.

Awards are presented to the Top 5 teams and the Top 10 individuals overall and in each category (halter, performance and reasons).

Here are the BHC sophomore Horse Judging Team members' individual results:

Individual	Halter Performance Reasons	Overall
-------------------	-----------------------------------	----------------

Aubrey Bennett - North Liberty, IN	1	2	1	1
Kamryn Kruchten - Waunakee, WI	5	3	5	3
Cora Hill - Warren, IN	2		4	7
Cali Pontnack - Winchester, IL	7			9
Madison Taylor - Taylorville, IL		9
Ben Corey - Ewing, MO	10
Kessler Klopfenstein - Howe, IN		8

Additional team members are Garrett Farran of Mountain Grove, MO, and Hollie Klein of Shipshewana, IN.

The team is coached by Aaron Callahan.

Share this:

- Click to share on Twitter \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to share on Facebook \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to email this to a friend \(Opens in new window\)
- Click to print \(Opens in new window\)
- More