On your FAFSA application, you indicated that you were homeschooled. In order to process your Financial Aid, you must submit documentation verifying secondary school completion.

If this response was correct, provide one of the following documents that indicates your high school completion status when you begin college:

- A secondary school completion credential for homeschooling, or
- If you were homeschooled in a State where State law does not require a homeschooling credential, submit a transcript, or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses completed and includes a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain this documentation, please contact the Financial Aid Office for further instruction.

If this response was incorrect, please log on to www.fafsa.gov and submit a correction to your FAFSA.
