The Social Security Administration (SSA) could not match your name with your Social Security number as reported on your FAFSA.

Please log in to your FAFSA (www.fafsa.gov) and review your Social Security number, name, and birthdate. Make sure to reference official documentation, such as your Social Security Card, for accuracy.

NOTE: As a general rule, a student's financial aid documents should reflect his or her legal name at the time of application. Your name should be entered exactly as it appears on your Social Security Card.

If your name or birthdate is incorrect:

- Make corrections and resubmit your FAFSA.

If your Social Security number is incorrect – OR – your information as listed on the FAFSA is correct, submit the following:

- A copy of your Social Security Card
- A copy of your valid, government issued photo I.D.
- A copy of any relevant documentation explaining the discrepancy (i.e. marriage certificate, court order, etc.)
