

A

Do your credits transfer to four-year schools?

Yes! Students can transfer to four-year colleges and universities seamlessly. We recommend that students meet with an academic advisor each semester to make an educational plan. Following the plan ensures that students are taking the proper courses to achieve their academic goals.

Categories: Common Questions, Frequently Asked Questions