

A

When do students take the state exam?

Students may only take the state exam after completing all of theory and clinical. Generally, the state exams may be taken about a month after the last day of class. BHC offers state exams on a regular basis, but they may be taken elsewhere.

Category: cna