

What PBL Offers Students

- Career preparation opportunities through conferences, and networking with businesses and community leaders.
- Student scholarships from partners, as well as numerous recognition programs with top businesses.
- Access to various Internship and development programs providing real work experiences.
- Leadership development and achievement programs designed to enhance leadership, communication, and business skills.
- Outstanding state and national leadership conferences in cities throughout the country with motivating keynote speakers and diverse workshops.
- Challenging competitions in more than 50 different business and skill competitive events.
- Trophies, plaques, and cash awards for top competitive event award winners at the National Leadership Conference.
- Skills certification opportunities at the National Leadership Conference.
- A competitive advantage over other students.
- Community service experience opportunities with organizations such as the March of Dimes.
- An e-magazine/newsletter, published three times a year, designed specifically to address the needs and development of PBL members.
- Travel opportunities to major cities around the country.
- A chance to network with students and colleges from around the state and around the country.