

Sample Transfer Plan

Area of Focus: History Associate in Arts (AA) transfer degree

This Sample Transfer Plan is for students intending to major in History after transfer, but who have not selected a transfer institution. Students who have a specific transfer school in mind should not use this guide, but instead seek advising from BHC and the transfer school to ensure the transfer institution's requirements are met.

The History area of focus provides a broad perspective on the human condition. Students will study the growth and development of the human race over the last 5,000 years. Students will better understand how earlier generations created and shaped the civilizations and societies of today. History courses have significant reading and writing components and successful completion requires students to demonstrate college level abilities in these subjects; therefore, completion of ENG 101 prior to enrolling in history courses is highly recommended. Students who complete a baccalaureate program in History may be employed as teachers, college professors, museum workers, archivists, public officials, government employees, and corporate executives. History is often selected as preparation for law school.
