

Sample Transfer Plan

Area of Focus: English Literature

Associate in Arts (AA) transfer degree

This Sample Transfer Plan is for students intending to major in English with a literature focus after transfer, but who have not selected a transfer institution. Students who have a specific transfer school in mind should not use this guide, but instead seek advising from BHC and the transfer school to ensure the transfer institution's requirements are met.

The English Literature area of focus develops skills in writing, literary interpretation, critical analysis, historical research, and respectful debate. Literary courses that emphasize creative and critical writing help students find their own voice while they learn how literature and language have influenced the values and experiences of societies worldwide and across the ages. Graduates of baccalaureate programs in English Literature find jobs teaching, writing or editing in fields such as marketing, book publishing, or writing for business or non-profit organizations. Others use English as a background for post-baccalaureate study of law, business, theology, social work, counseling, library and information science or other graduate programs.
