

Sample Transfer
Plan

Area of Focus: English Writing

Associate in Arts (AA) transfer degree

This Sample Transfer Plan is for students intending to major in English with a writing focus after transfer, but who have not selected a transfer institution. Students who have a specific transfer school in mind should not use this guide, but instead seek advising from BHC and the transfer school to ensure the transfer institution's requirements are met.

An English Writing major provides a versatile liberal arts education that provides flexibility to select from diverse career paths in a changing economy. English Writing majors take courses in literature, language, linguistics, and grammar, as well as in creative, technical and professional writing. Graduates of baccalaureate programs in English Writing may find careers as writers and authors developing written content for various types of media, including advertisements; books; magazines; movie, play, and television scripts; and blogs. Other career opportunities include education, editing, copywriting, management, public relations, publishing, and technical writing.

Course Transferability

- Course and transfer requirements can vary among institutions and may differ from the recommendations on this guide. Grades of 'C' or better may be required for a course to transfer, especially courses intended for the major.
- Students are advised to select a transfer school as soon as possible, typically before completing 30 college-level credits. This is especially applicable to English Writing majors, and Secondary Education English majors, where major requirements vary significantly among schools.
